

Local and Miscellaneous.

ENDORSED.—The distinguished commander of the 1st Cavalry, Territory, Montana, to General Connor, as republished in another column, cannot but be gratefully received by him, and be respected by the public.

The Reese River Revue calls for the foundation of a cabinet of mineral curiosities of the State. A Board of Superintendents, consisting of the Storey county, who will connect a mining library with the scheme, and the whole will be known as the Nevada Museum.

THE REESE RIVER REVUE.—Brooches, pins, rings, diamonds, ornaments and all that, are in store at Meek's Pioneer Jewelry establishment, East Temple street, two doors south of the "New York Store." Parties desiring to make New Year presents will be benefited by calling there before buying elsewhere.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.—Has eight daily papers—the Whig, Enquirer, Examiner, Republican, Commercial, Post, Times and Commercial Bulletin. The Sentinel, which was Jeff. Davis' personal organ, has just been revived. Verily, peace is multiplying the mediums of news, tho' it has to a degree, dried up the news to publish in.

NEW YEAR'S GIFTS.—An inviting assortment of sweet styles of jewelry, pearl and diamond goods, ornaments for gents and ladies, jewelry, gold and silver watches, etc., of European and San Francisco importations, are in store and for sale, for New Year presents, at Waters' Jewelry and Fancy Goods establishment, in the building of the "New York Store," East Temple street, one door south of the "New York Store." Give him a call between now and New Year.

THEATRICAL.—At the Academy of Music, this Friday evening, will be repeated by request of hundreds who had the opportunity of witnessing it last week—the great drama of the "Jibbuncs," or "The Dead Shot," with Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, Miss Belle Douglas, Messrs. Mortimer, Potter, Rainier and the whole Potter Troupe in the cast. A new song by Rainier and a novel dance by the troupe will be the interlude before the rousing afterpiece of "The Dead Shot."

PLEASANT PARTY.—A pleasant social ball came off at the new "Bureau Hall," upper part of Mr. Savage's building, City Hotel property, Wednesday evening. A gay and jovial crowd enjoyed the music and the first-rate supper were well appreciated, while the nicest order and most courteous style was secured through the management of Mr. Savage.

HARD TRAVELING ON THE PLAINS.—From telegraphic and other sources we learn that the roads are becoming bad, and the mail line between here and Denver. Those that recently reached Denver by Overland Stage from this place, reported that their severe and laborious trip, the plains across, was literally a triumph of horse flesh over hardships, by the stage boys. The wonder is that the mail coaches can come and go, as they are blocked or broken up is the route reported. The snows have also seriously interfered with the tri weekly runs of the Overland Stage coaches between here and Montana. But, a change must soon ensue, and we shall again be in receipt of mails with schedule regularity. Winter, without snow, would be worth the name; so we might as well view things with patience and philosophy.

General Connor.—We are happy to announce that our citizens have taken the best means in their power to put the authorities in possession of their views on the subject of Indian fighting. In general, and of General Connor's method, in particular. In the columns of this paper have appeared arguments on this subject endorsed by our people—that we shall not attempt their reputation now. The news has reached us that Butte field's Express Co's stage has been stopped, and six passengers murdered. The Blackfoot drivers their treaty two days after it was signed. Treating with savages was a grinning at our folly and pouncing our presents, is played out. A blood and tremendous punishment should be administered to those who are now reported to be another column, and which was very numerous and respectfully attended—was addressed by Maj. Bruce, Judge Strickland, Professor Dimmick, Judge Talbot, Col. Deimling, Judge Lovell and the Rev. A. M. Knight. The General would have been glad of such a gathering of men, all anxious to endorse his policy. Connor is the man for Indian fighting; he is the representative of the brave, and he knows his trade, which can be said of but few, and they never were not to do it. The Department know how to do it. The General's policy would wipe out a word on our behalf, the blood stained robbers would soon be wiped out. The supererogation of General Connor is the best policy for the Indian.

That the more probably the pressure brought to bear upon the War Department, by those Peace Commissions and Commissioners, of the result of recommendation of his commanding officers.

Col. George A. Smith.—It is with just pride that we bear testimony to the harmony existing between the soldiers and citizens of this district. It speaks well for the discipline maintained and reflects credit on the military bearing of the troops, that notwithstanding much need less provocation on the part of the Mormon leaders, nothing of a serious character has thus far occurred to mar the peace of the community. The feelings of the dominant sect naturally prejudice the people against the soldiers, and doubtless caused them to fear the acts of vengeance predicted by those who had been known to the quality of their own predilections. But now the people are beginning to understand that the U. S. boys are orderly characters.

Knowing that from the public stands in Utah many hard and unjust things had been wantonly asserted by those who are too prone to attribute the basest motives and the most odious practices to those whom they are pleased to call their enemies, we confess we had our fears that some of the soldiers would, in reckless, unprovoked, and entirely unwarrantable acts, the unjust reproaches and vile epithets that had been heaped upon them, and upon the too indulgent government, for whose supremacy they had imperiled their lives; but we are more than pleased that thus far our fears have not been groundless. In this city we have a most efficient and reliable Provost Guard, and the few soldiers who so far forget their duty to themselves and their country as to frequent the liquor saloons of their maligners and to imbibe the intoxicating cup, are promptly arrested and confined. We confidently believe that our Mormon citizens of Salt Lake will yet acknowledge their indebtedness to the well-disciplined and obedient guard, for the almost entire absence of the acts of lawlessness to which the unchaste and unchristian attitudes of the so-called leaders are the natural incentive.

MONTANA.—The Virginia City Post of the 16th, is at hand at last, after a severe trip through the northern canyons so lately covered with snow. The Post says the weather for the week previous, and at date of issue, was shockingly severe, 24 below zero. Speaking of the wholesale markets, it remarks: "The business done in the market during the past week has been limited, owing partly to the very severe cold weather."

Transactions in produce light, without material change in prices of any article except flour, which is dull and lower. Other articles ruled about as last quoted. Provisions unchanged. Bacon, remaining in the market, is in demand. Hams dull.

In groceries there is no essential change. Coffee remains firm, with but little inquiry. Sugars firm. Teas unchanged.

Tobacco, demand limited; stock in market good. We have to note a further decline in this staple. Gold dust is offering quite freely, but in small amounts. Currency remains scarce, while coin is plenty. There has been no material change since our last report in prices of gold or exchange.

The most of the merchants of Virginia City have resolved to close their stores on Sabbath days. The Madison County, Mt., school fund for the present year, amounts to about five thousand dollars. Creditable to the friends of free schools in that section of Montana. The Virginia City Literary Association were to have their new hall dedicated on the 19th, with an opening lecture, by Dr. Dimsdale, chief editor of the Post, and a high-toned "shop" at the conclusion. Judge Munson was busy holding court at Helena. Milo S. Farwell, son of D. C. Farwell of Virginia City, died recently after three days illness. Stage and wagon travel, to and fro, is said to be dangerous and almost impossible, the ice and snow in streams and cañons between Virginia, Helena, Blackfoot and Diamond cities, being crossed at each man's peril.

Col. George A. Smith.—The Gold Hill, Nev., News, noticing the return of our late Sub-District commander to that place, speaks as follows: "BLISS, FROM SALT LAKE.—Gold Hill has the honor of sending forth a large number of men who have then to first positions in our State's volunteer corps. Taking the field officers' berth, and forming the very best material in rank and file. Bliss, from Salt Lake, is a man of high rank and high ability. Col. Bliss, late commanding Utah District. To say that the Colonel is well, would be to tell only what his friends will remark on the instant of greeting. But to say that he has done well, is something we have the special privilege and satisfaction of recording. Col. George reports everything in fine condition at Salt Lake City. He proclaims that Salt Lake is the handsomest city in the Union; and says that a place to make money can be struck. He informs that within a radius of 40 miles from Salt Lake there are unnumbered mines that readily yield $5,000 per ton of smelting process alone. The Colonel remains with us until after our State Congress convenes, and then departs for the East. Whether or not he will return to the West, is not of our concern."
